A spectacular journey into Tibet, taking in the highlights and complex histories of the local people, the cities, sights and monasteries, as well as the awesome high altitude scenery for which Tibet is famous – from snow capped mountains to deep valleys, bright blue skies, gushing rivers, turquoise lakes and rolling plateaus.

This is a truly spectacular journey into one of the wildest and most beautiful regions of the world.

Lhasa, sometimes spelled Lasa, is the traditional capital of Tibet and the capital of the Tibet Autonomous Region of the People's Republic of China. Lhasa is located at the foot of Mount Gephel.

The city is the traditional seat of the Dalai Lama and the Potala and Norbulingka palaces and in Tibetan Buddhism is regarded as the holiest centre in Tibet.

Lhasa has many sites of historic interest, including the Potala Palace, Jokhang Temple, Sera Monastery, Zhefeng Temple, Drepung Monastery and Norbulingka. However, many important sites were damaged during the Cultural Revolution.

Guaranteed supplement for 2 people guaranteed departure $239/ person.

The night in Tokyo is offered by JAL when there is no connecting flight the same day. Should you take a Japan extension, no extra charge for stop over.
